

RSUPESY&T gamers will perform at the first official tournament eSports

Festival "Moscow Electronic Sport" will be held in the capital on November 26-27. The tournament will be the first official start for cyber players - Electronic Sport officially recognized only in June 2016.

30 students of specialization "eSports" RSUPESY&T help in organizing and refereeing, some of them will compete for prizes. At the moment, there are about 200 players from Moscow and the Moscow region, age of athletes from 14 to 30 years. Student RSUPESY&T, professional player, winner of international competitions, a member of the world champion Artem Barshak will be the special guest of the event.