

RSUPESY&T graduate Alexey Yarygin - winner of the Chkalovsky motocross in the class "Open spikes"

At the beginning of February in the motorcircuit club "Gallaks" near Borodino village, Mytishchi district, Moscow region has passed the Russian motorcycle cross for the prize named after V.P. Chkalov. Competition has been conducted regularly since 1939, and attracts a large number of participants and fans of motorcycling from many regions of Russia.

Team "AMC FSO Russia" including RSUPESY&T graduate Alexey Yarygin, won its robust, but a brilliant victory in the class "Open spikes", beating 35 teams opponents. Despite the harsh weather conditions and serious competition, guys, using the correct and well-established tactics, managed to become leaders in their group.

See the sportsmen's interview at <http://motogonki.ru> [1]