

Tamara Mikhailova, Rector of the RSUPESY&T- member of Board of Trustees of the Association for Sport Security of Russia

Rector of the Russian State University of Physical Education, Sports, Youth and Tourism, Professor Tamara Mikhailova, became a member of the Board of Trustees of the Association for Sport Security of Russia. In total, the Board includes 20 representatives of the Ministry of Sport, Olympic Committee, State Duma, Federation Council, DOSAAF and the Ministry of Internal Affairs, in particular, President of the Russian Olympic Committee Alexander Zhukov, Minister of Sports Pavel Kolobkov, First Deputy Minister of Internal Affairs Alexander Gorovoy and others.

Also Evgeniy Pavlov, vice-rector for educational and methodical work of RSUPESY&T became a member of the Association for Sport Security of Russia. He headed the Committee on Science and Education. In total, the Association has 13 core committees.

The Association for Sport Security of Russia was established in 2012 on the initiative of the Russian Olympic Committee, the Central Sports Club of the State Service of the Russian Federation and the ROO «Dinamo» №28.

The purpose of the organization is to promote the development of physical culture and sport, formation of interaction system between interested government bodies, local government bodies, commercial and non-commercial organizations to ensure safety in the field of physical culture and sports.